

Lucky Alvin Krém a křup

★ ★ 2-Star

Rich peanut butter colouring with small flecks of cocoa nibs. Appealing, peanut-rich, nose. The palate is full of delicious surprises from the crunch of the cornflakes to creaminess of the white chocolate which is carefully balanced with a judicious use of salt. No hint of oiliness. This is fun, well made ingenious product leaving you wanting more.

Interesting varied appearance with peanut aromas. The mouthfeel is delightful with a crunch from the cornflakes and added texture from the cocoa nibs. The chocolate gives a smooth sweetness and brings the whole product together. Wow!

This glossy peanut butter has a good roasted peanut aroma. On tasting, it is such a surprise! Those crunchy cornflakes are extraordinary and then you get hints of sea salt and the little nibs of cocoa. We are impressed at how well made this is and It's breakfast in a mouthful! We debated between one and two stars but, for innovation alone and the surprise it delivers, we think it is worthy of two stars.